

DAILY PLANET

ALL THE NEWS THAT FITS

Friday, May 12

2000

Russian defense delegation visits Marshall Friday

Five members of a Russian defense delegation will visit Marshall Friday. The group will receive the Center overview and visit the Microgravity Development Laboratory, Payloads Operations Integration Center and Space Station manufacturing and assembly facility.

Orientations for Open House volunteers 9:30-10:30 a.m. Friday Morris Auditorium

Employee & Organizational Development Department closed Friday

Project implementation class set June 19-23 at Marshall

A project implementation class will be June 19-23 at Marshall. The class focuses on executing a baselined project using NASA program and management systems requirements. For information, call 544-8864.

Discount Six Flags tickets on sale at NASA Exchange

Discount tickets for Six Flags Over Georgia are available at the NASA Exchange in Bldg. 4752. The tickets — good all season — cost $19.50, but must be purchased by May 31. For more information, call Candy Bailey at 544-2185.

CA Log for travel during Shuttle launches is on 'Inside Marshall.' Click Travel